DPW Report: Josh has been mowing on the weekends. Brian has another gentleman that is interested in mowing. Received a resume for the DPW position with all the licenses. This candidate wasn't available for the meeting. DPW is still turning water off for delinquent water bills. Brian is trying to get service lines ready to dig up.

Police Report: Chief Wilburn presented the police report.

Public Comments: Caroline Wilson, Shiawassee County Clerk, was a guest at the meeting. She spoke about the County directory can be found on the county's website. They are no longer handing them out to municipalities. Secretary of State was at the courthouse to help individuals get their real ID license. They are trying to be more accessible to the community. Caroline spoke on behalf of the 9-day early voting site. Tremendous increase of voters from the first election.
